

On April 14, 2008 Mike Giannini of the Magnaflux Corporation gave an insightful presentation about Resonant Testing and how it can be used as a new tool for defect definition. We met at The Flame restaurant in Countryside, IL and with 18 members and guest in attendance Mike went over the theory of Resonant Testing and demonstrated how this method of inspection can be a very valuable tool.